Rain Interferes with Card at Saratoga Track.

PRETEND WINS THE FEATURE

Added Starter in the Albany Handicap for Two-year-olds Gallops Under the Wire Five Lengths Ahead of Scarpia-Hildreth's Firestone Makes First Winning of Meeting.

Saratoga, Aug. 17.—More rain kept the attendance down to the regulars to-day, while the races were run in a sea of mud.

Four favorites suffered defeat, and the late runner came out ahead on the proceedings. Pretend was the starter in the Albany Handicap for two-year-olds, and though he went up in the betting to 8 to 1, he won in a breezing gallop. Scarpia showed the way until well into the stretch, where Dugan let Pretend down, and the Golden Maxim colt romped to the judges with five lengths to spare. Scarpia got the place.

S. C. Hildreth won his first race for the meeting, when Firestone took the handicap for all ages. King Cobalt and Personal started off at a killing pace, but both weakened on the turn. Then Powers got busy with Firestone, who stood a long, hard drive to win by a head from Rosinor.

After losing nearly $30,000 in bets on his filly, Glennadene, this year, Chicago O'Brien saw her win the second race for two-year-olds at odds of 10 to 1. She got home in a sharp drive a head in front of Zaccatcas.

Floride was successful in the third race. She caught Rubi in the stretch and beat him easily.

VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

Portsmouth Takes Another from the Shoemakers.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 17.—Griffin should have landed his game this afternoon, but the men behind him were determined that he should not, and they made errors galore, and the Portsmouth team won, 7 to 4. Not one of the runs of the visitors was earned, all of them being due to errors, or came after three chances had been lost to retire the side. The fans have quit, and are demanding a change of management. Score: R. H. E. Portsmouth..... 9 1 0 0 0 0 3 4 6 6 Shoemakers..... 4 0 0 0 0 0 4 3 7 2

Split Even at Danville.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Danville, Va., Aug. 17.—Roanoke and Danville divided a double-header to-day, the visitors winning the first on Danville's errors, while Danville took the second in the same way, scoring five runs with two hands out in the seventh inning, and after a chance to retire the side. Loos and Morrissey, for Danville, were both in fine form, Loos really deserving a shut-out victory in the first. In the second the Highlanders bunched a single, a sacrifice, and a double on Morrissey, scoring their only run. Three hits, two passes, and an error gave Danville five in the seventh, and another was added in the eighth on errors. The game was featured by fast fielding, a catch by Left Fielder Holland in the second game being one of the greatest ever seen here. Scores: R. H. E. Norfolk Wins Two from Richmond.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 17.—The Crew played a bit better ball than did the Richmond Colts this afternoon and won both ends of a double-header, 2 to 1 and 3 to 2.

The closeness of the scores put both games in the doubtful column until the last man was out in each. Two singles and an out scored one for Richmond in the first game, while a hit and an error, and a two-bagger by Bonner gave Norfolk a margin of one run. More contested hitting won the second game for the locals. Scores: R. H. E. First game: Norfolk..... 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 Richmond..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 Second game: Norfolk..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 1 Richmond..... 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 3 6 2

BANKERS' LEAGUE MIX-UP.

Author of Discourteous Article Issues Public Apology.

Special Editor The Washington Herald.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Upon seeing the statement of Mr. Worley in The Washington Herald this morning, I wish to make the following additions to it:

First—There has been a rumor that Mr. Wolf was the author of Sunday's article, and that he did it to show spite against the members of the American Security team. This is absolutely untrue, and it is known that Mr. Wolf has been giving all decisions without partiality to any team.

Second—In an interview with the writer of Sunday's article the following reason for the writing of said article was given: The author was told the correct facts was badly mixed up, and the article went to press in the form of a direct insult to Mr. Reeside. The author wishes to state that he is extremely sorry for the article, and that he wishes to apologize to Mr. Reeside through these columns.

NINTH IS SHUT OUT

Balzer Allows Christians but Two Scattered Hits.

DODD'S HITS AD BAPTISTS

Three Bagger in Fourth Responsible for First Talley-Balzer Strike Out Nine and Ninth Streeters Have but One Opportunity to Cross the Pan-Symonokis Is Wild.

By the masterful twirling of "Smoke" Balzer, Bethany was able to shut Ninth out yesterday in the Sunday School League, 2 to 0, thereby making it necessary for the remainder of the postponed games to be played before the winner can be determined.

Opposed to Balzer was Symonokis, who, for the first three innings, retired the Baptists in order, but in the fourth, Dodd, the first man up, hit over the crowd near the right foul line for three sacks, and scored a moment later on Spaulding's sacrifice fly to Stecher.

Their other run came in the sixth round, when Kinney led off with a single center and was safe at second when Symonokis threw Menefee's punt over Barnhart's head. Kinney went to third on Salb's poor throw to first to catch Menefee, and the latter stole second a moment later. Dugan hit at three wide ones, and Turner took Davis' place at bat and struck out, but was safe on first when Salb dropped the third strike and made a bluff at throwing to first in order to catch Kinney off third, but Hands failed to cover the third cushion, and it was then too late to get Turner at first.

Woodward then forced Kinney at the plate. Harris to Salb. With the bases still full, Symonokis gave Sheaffer four wide ones, forcing the runner over Balzer's head. Kinney went to third on Spaulding's sacrifice fly to Stecher.
